An FDIC-insured sweep vehicle for the cash in your account

As an investor there may be times when you carry a cash balance in your account. This happens when you receive a dividend or interest payment or when you sell a security and do not immediately use the proceeds to purchase a different security.

You may also deposit cash in your account for future purchases. If you have an Investment Access[®] Account and use that account to help manage your day-to-day cash needs and pay bills, you likely have funds set aside to cover these payments. Or, you may have allocated funds to cash as part of your investment strategy.

Now you can deposit cash in interest-bearing Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) bank accounts through RBC Insured Deposits.

How the program works

If you use RBC Insured Deposits, RBC Capital Markets, LLC, will deposit your funds into one or more FDIC-insured banks participating in the program.

If your deposit is greater than the coverage available at one bank, the excess deposit amounts will be directed into accounts at other participating banks. In this way, RBC Insured Deposits places balances into multiple banks to provide FDIC coverage in excess of the per bank limit. This program is designed to offer $5 million in aggregate FDIC coverage. Please note that if your deposits exceed this amount, the amount in excess of $5 million will be automatically swept into the RBC US Government Money Market Fund. Cash swept into the RBC US Government Money Market Fund will not be covered by FDIC insurance but will be covered by SIPC up to applicable limits.

Retirement accounts are eligible to participate in the program and will only have deposits allocated to RBC WM affiliate banks, City National Bank and/or RBC Bank Georgia N.A. Therefore, retirement accounts will be eligible for up to $498,000 in FDIC coverage with any excess balances being swept to an unaffiliated money market fund. Cash swept into the unaffiliated money market fund will not be covered by FDIC insurance but will be covered by SIPC up to applicable limits. Please contact your Financial Advisor for more information.

What RBC Insured Deposits offers

Peace of mind — This program is ideal for clients who wish to earn interest on their cash but who place a high priority on the safety of principal. Individual clients, sole proprietors, government entities and qualifying nonprofits can participate. Please note: pooled self-trusted qualified plans are prohibited from participating in the program.

Confidence — RBC Insured Deposits sweeps cash into interest-bearing accounts at FDIC-insured banks that RBC has thoroughly reviewed; only creditworthy banks participate in the program.

Choice — You can maintain deposits in multiple banks with up to $5 million aggregate FDIC insurance coverage¹, and you have the ability to exclude certain banks from receiving your deposits.

Convenience — You don't have to manage relationships with multiple banks. We do it for you. And we report your cash balance by bank, the interest you earned and the Annual Percentage Yield Earned (APYE) on your statement.

Consider pairing RBC Insured Deposits with RBC Cash Plus

If your cash goals also include enhancing your growth potential, explore the benefits of sweeping a portion of your cash balances into RBC Cash Plus.² Earning a competitive interest rate – backed by the strength and stability of Royal Bank of Canada – this cash solution delivers the same confidence, convenience and access to liquidity you seek.

Combined with RBC Insured Deposits, RBC Cash Plus can help make your cash work harder for you.

FDIC insurance

Deposits placed with banks that are members of the FDIC are covered by FDIC insurance for up to $250,000 per depositor, per insured bank, for each account ownership category (single account, joint account, etc.) should the bank fail. Coverage limits may vary by the specific account registration. To learn more about FDIC insurance coverage, please visit www.fdic.gov. Bank deposits are not covered by SIPC.

RBC Capital Markets, LLC, automatically monitors the bank deposits and certificates of deposits (CDs) held at RBC. If you hold a CD at RBC Capital Markets, LLC, that was issued by a bank that participates in RBC Insured Deposits, the system will not direct funds to that bank. Bank deposits and CDs you hold at other firms are not monitored by RBC Capital Markets, LLC. If you hold deposits directly at a bank that also participates in RBC Insured Deposits, you may exceed FDIC coverage limits available through that bank — unless you instruct RBC Capital Markets, LLC, not to deposit your funds into that particular bank.

Benefits of RBC Insured Deposits
